

1130 Oretha Castle Haley Blvd.
New Orleans, LA 70113

Helping Hands

MAY 2008

MONTHLY VOLUNTEER NEWSLETTER

Have skills? Please help.

If you have carpentry, electrical or plumbing experience, the New Orleans Mission needs your help. Opportunities are each Saturday in May from 8-4.

View other volunteer opportunities.

Give Us Your Two Cents in Three to Five Minutes

The New Orleans Mission needs your input. We want to make volunteering at the New Orleans Mission the best experience possible. Help us by answering eight questions, which takes less than five minutes.

Please click or cut and paste to complete the eight-question survey.
http://www.surveymonkey.com/s.aspx?sm=4uTaCRwvybMIXsXxv3WRQA_3d_3d.

Tutor in the Community Learning Center

Give someone a lifelong gift – literacy. The New Orleans Mission operates an adult education center and offers participants reading, writing and math skills tutoring. The Center also provides GED test preparation for individuals without a high-school diploma. Tutors work one-on-one with adult participants, mostly low-income and/or homeless individuals. We ask tutors to commit two hours, one day per week between 3-6 p.m.

Interested? E-mail Learning Center Administrator Harris Martinson.

New Orleans Mission serves the poor and homeless populations of New Orleans. The Mission meets spiritual and physical needs by helping clients restore a correct relationship with God and a productive relationship with society.

If you don't want to receive this e-newsletter, e-mail ktnom@bellsouth.net with "opt out" as the subject.

Volunteer Spotlight :: the Servers at Seder 2008

They came, they served, they rocked.

Dressed like professional wait staff and providing service to match, our guests would never have known they were volunteers. They brought food, refreshment and hospitality to the nearly 60 guests at our annual Passover Seder.

Our gratitude goes to servers Laura Rockett, Ashley Hurley, Darlene Adams, Sharlene Adams, Mitch O'Reilly, Erik Gadzinski and all who came to help!

Snapshots at the Mission

These photos are from our newest online album, "The Harvest is Plentiful."

1130 Oretha Castle Haley Blvd.
New Orleans, LA 70113

www.neworleansmission.org

To volunteer, contact:
[504] 415/9579 or kim@neworleansmission.org